

KYACDA All-State Audition Procedure

1. Spoken Introduction. Student states:

- a. Student's Full Name
- b. Grade Level
- c. Voice Part

2. Sing a major scale a cappella, both ascending and descending using solfege. Teacher may play starting pitch, but student must NOT hum the starting pitch.

Soprano uses an F Major scale:

Alto uses a D Major scale:

Tenor uses an F Major scale: (or a comfortable key within reason)

Bass uses a C Major scale (but in bass clef octave!):

3. Sing, “My Country ‘Tis of Thee,” a cappella. Teacher may play starting pitch (NOT a chord), but student must NOT hum the starting pitch.

Please see next pages for “My Country” in your voice part.

4. Sing excerpt from, “Sing to Me,” by Reginal Wright in YOUR voice part! Teacher may play starting pitch (NOT a chord), but student must NOT hum the starting pitch.

Please see next pages for excerpt!

Reminders:

1. Sing with a light, head voice—like a hoot owl, “Who.”
2. Sing with TALL vowels—as close to an “AH” as you can get.
3. Only sing the notated notes—no ad libs!
4. Don’t scoop up to the pitches, hit the nail on the head!

All-State Info:
